Video Contest Gives Youth a Voice

Navajo County Coalition Against Substance Abuse and The Partnership for a Drug-Free America, Arizona Affiliate, host a video contest to engage students in a fun and creative way. The U B The Rent contest is about giving teens a voice. It is about tuning parents in to what really goes on in a teen's life from peer pressure to being asked to drink or use drugs. The contest is easy to enter:

- * Videos should be no more than one minute in length
- * Deadline for entries in Navajo County is March 31st
- * Signed application must be received with each entry

Entries will be judged by audio-visual professionals at Show Low C4TV. Three local winners will each receive 4 movie passes from White Mountain Entertainment. These winners will be submitted to the statewide contest. A grand prizewinner from across Arizona will be chosen from the entries and the winner will receive a new iPod nano.

To see some examples of what can be done please visit our YouTube page at <http://www.youtube.com/group/ubtherent>

Contest entry form and rules are downloadable online at www.navajocountydrugproject.com
Please encourage your kids and students to participate. Don't hesitate to contact us with any questions.
